JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The appellants herein are the respondents in the writ petition who seek to assail the order allowing the writ petition filed by the respondent herein, seeking to assail the impugned order, dated 27-05-2005, rejecting the claim of the writ petitioner/respondent herein for promotion.

The main submission made in this appeal is that G.O.Ms.No.225, dated 18-05-1999, is not applicable and further there has been considerable delay on the part of the writ petitioner in approaching the Court. The learned single Judge having gone into all these aspects and placing reliance on Rule 17 of the APTWREIS Recruitment Rules, 1999, where under it was held that all such rules and regulations as mentioned therein shall apply 'Mutatis Mutandis' to the officers and staff to the APTWREI Society, allowed the writ petition holding that the plea of the appellants that the said G.O. has no application was rejected. Admittedly, in this case, the promotions were given in the year 2001 and the writ petitioner has been pursuing the same by filing a representation from the year 2002 and ultimately, the same was rejected by the appellants herein as per the impugned order, dated 27-05-2005. Therefore, no delay nor lathes can be attributed to the respondent herein. In the circumstances, we do not find any reasons to interfere with the order passed by the learned single Judge.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
